Acid Flung Into Eyes of Labor Critic

N. Y. Columnist Severely Burned And Vision Impaired

NEW YORK (AP)—Victor Riesel, anti-racketeering labor columnist, was splashed in the face by acid thrown by an unidentified man early today. Doctors said he is in danger of losing his eyesight.

U. S. Atty. Paul W. Williams said Riesel was to have been a witness before a special Grand Jury investigating racketeering in the garment industry, and Williams said "I regard this as an attempt to intimidate witnesses in the government's investigation."

Williams called FBI agents and the chief of his criminal division to an immediate conference in an attempt to get "a line on those responsible."

The attack was made about 3 a.m. when Riesel and a girl assistant left Lindy's Restaurant at 51st Street and Broadway and prepared to enter her auto.

The two had gone to the restaurant after a midnight radio broadcast in which Riesel interviewed two members of a Long Island building trades union fighting the local domination of William C. De Koning Jr., son of a Long Island labor czar and convicted extortioner.

IN TWO PREVIOUS appearances on the program, and in columns which appeared this week in 193 newspapers across the country, Riesel had attacked labor racketeering on a broad front, including the New York garment industry, the trucking industry, and the New York waterfront. He also had attacked Southern segregation moves as they affect the labor field.

Doctors said Riesel's vision was impaired and his face badly burned by the acid. They said he was able to distinguish light and moving objects but that full damage would not be known immediately.

Estes Challenges Adlai in Illinois Ballot Tuesday

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai I. Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver test their strength again Tuesday, this time in Stevenson's home state.

It is not a clear-cut contest. Stevenson's name is the only one on the Democratic ballot. Voters will mark their presidential preference and elect 50 delegates to the national convention as part of the state's primary election.

But Kefauver backers have been drumming up a write-in campaign for the Tennessee senator, especially since his victory over Stevenson in Minnesota and his showing in Wisconsin this week.

Though this is Stevenson's home ground and the Illinois Democratic organization is behind him, Kefauver's backers believe they will elect some delegates favorable to their man, Herbert Lockwood, who heads the Illinois Kefauver clubs, said the number might hit 20.

There also has been a last-minute campaign for write-in votes for Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio.

The Illinois vote is strictly a popularity poll. It is not binding on convention delegates.

But a big Kefauver write-in would be a stunning blow to Stevenson.

FLYING SAUCERS

Your old Columnist climbed the hill to see "Sky-Eye" Jones, the old timer that fixed himself a telescope out of a hollow log.

He is smart and knows all about flying saucers. I asked the 90-year-old, why he didn't get married again. "Well," said Sky Eye, "I'll tell you. There ain't but one kind of a woman who'd have an old codger like me, and I'll be darned if I'm going to settle down and live with a doped fool."

The tongue goes faster as the brain slows down.

Former Red Premier Malenkov Publicly Repudiates Josef Stalin

LONDON (AP)—Former Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov today publicly repudiated the leadership of his political mentor, the late Josef Stalin whom he charged had attempted to be a superman.

Malenkov succeeded Stalin as Soviet Premier. He now is Soviet minister of power stations, a role in which he is winding up, a tour of British conventional and atomic power installations.

In repudiating Stalin, he told a press conference that Stalin had

Post Office Backs Down in Secrecy Row

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department has backed down on its insistence that the names of persons eligible for postmaster appointments be kept secret, it was disclosed today.

The action is the latest victory for a House Government Operations Subcommittee headed by John E. Moss (D-Calif.) which has been protesting the suppression of public information by federal agencies.

POST OFFICE Department solicitor Abe McGregor Goff, in a letter to Moss, said the department had withdrawn its request to the Civil Service Commission to keep the names secret "since you feel so strongly about the matter."

It was not immediately known, however, whether the Civil Service Commission would take the secrecy wraps off, and whether the Post Office Department itself would make the lists public.

McGREGOR had testified last November that the department would not back down because publication of the names would "embarrass" applicants and discourage good men from seeking the jobs.

Anita Ekberg to be Queen of Desert Circus

Anita Ekberg, Swedish beauty queen who has had a sensational career in the motion picture world, will reign over the twentieth annual Desert Circus April 18 to 22, Co-Chairmen Jimmy Cooper and Ray Corliss announced today.

Miss Ekberg will take time off from her co-starring role with Robert Ryan in RKO's "Back From Eternity" to fill the role of Queen during the five fun-filled days.

She will preside at the Big Top Ball at Thunderbird Country Club Friday night, April 20, and lead the traditional Parade the following day at 10:30 a.m. as it winds its way down Palm Canyon Drive.

Miss Ekberg was born in Malmo, Sweden, and her businessman father objected when she left school to become a model in Stockholm. Two years later she won the national Swedish queen crown, and in 1951 she was the first foreign beauty to be guest of honor at the Miss America pageant at Atlantic City.

A year later she was offered a motion picture contract with Balzac Productions, Inc., and was given a role in "Blood Alley." Because of her international publicity, she received one of the most coveted roles in modern motion pictures, the part of Princess Helena in "War and Peace," which she recently completed in Rome. Her first starring role was opposite Victor Mature in "Zarak."

She is five feet seven inches in height and weighs 120 pounds. Her eyes are blue and her hair honey blonde. She swims expertly, has been skilled on skis since childhood, and sails a boat with confidence.

In preparation for Desert Circus festivities, the organization's office at 101 North Palm Canyon Drive will be open daily for information, tickets and parade entries. The telephone number is 2150.

Miner Jackling Left $7,000,000

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—Col. Daniel Cowan Jackling, Woodside, Calif., the world famous mining engineer who died March 13, left an estate valued at $7 million.

He left $500,000 outright to his widow, Mrs. Virginia Joffile Jackling, and $400,000 to relatives, friends and employees.

Jackling began his career as a dollar a day miner. He made a fortune by developing a profitable method of recovering copper from low grade ore.

City manager R. W. Peterson is scheduled to return to his desk Monday after a vacation trip to Pasadena, where his wife, Marion, is undergoing medical examination.

The Peterson family, including Susan, 7 months, left yesterday. City finance officer Shelby Langford has assumed the office duties during Peterson's absence.

Redlands Firm Picked to Perfect Rocket Vital to Satellite Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two firms working separately have undertaken to produce for the Earth satellite project the most powerful small rocket ever created.

To do it, engineers say, they will have to achieve a king-size "breakthrough" in the art of rocketry.

Their job is to perfect the unprecedented third rocket stage which will give the satellite its final gigantic thrust into space, doubling its second stage speed to a gravity balancing 18,000 miles an hour.

Picked to develop the third stage power plant, a device unique in the history of rocketry, were the Grand Central Rocket Co., Redlands, Calif., and the Allegheny Ballistics Laboratory, operated by the Hercules Powder Co. for the Navy at Cumberland, Md.

Award of the final stage contracts was announced jointly today by the Navy and the Martin Co., prime contractor of the which will launch the first art-

Indians Here Talk Land with Washington Aide

H. Rex Lee, associate Commissioner of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, together with other area and national representatives of the Bureau, are currently conducting meetings with the members of the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians, city officials and other advisory groups.

Presumably, Lee has returned here with definite plans for trusteeships for Tribal lands, equalization of allotments, water and mineral rights. Commissioner Glenn L. Emmons promised during a visit here in January that no action would be taken by the department until the Indians had been consulted, and their views made known.

Accompanying the associate commissioner on the trip are Lewis Sigler, legislative counsel of the Solicitor's Office of the Department of Interior; James Lowe, assistant area director, Sacramento, and Dale Baldwin, field representative, Riverside.

Emmons' January visit was concerned primarily with the recently enacted 25-year-lease law, but the overall situation was discussed.

Following his return to Washington, the Citizens' committee appointed by the Secretary of the Interior submitted its report after 18 months of study. The Tribe deferred action on recommendations made until clarification of the proposals was presented by the Bureau.

Today May End 1956 Session of Legislature

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Oil and water issues were the only two things standing in the way late today of an end to the 1956 session of the Legislature.

The outlook appeared bright for final passage of a bill giving the state $120 million of the oil revenue piled up by the city of Long Beach during the past 17 years.

But while a conference committee of the two Houses said it had not given up in its efforts to arrive at a compromise on water department legislation, the odds were against any water bill coming out of the present session.

Leaders of the two Houses predicted the Legislature would be able to end its current session by 6 p.m.

ASSEMBLYMAN Bruce F. Allen (R-San Jose), author of the Long Beach oil settlement legislation, cleared his biggest Senate hurdle Wednesday when the Judiciary Committee voted unanimous approval of his measure which already had been passed by the Assembly.

In addition to giving the state a big chunk of Long Beach oil millions, the bill provides that all future revenues from the fabulously wealthy pool will be split 50-50 by the state and city.

THE ALLEN bill is backed by the city of Long Beach, the attorney general, state controller and almost all interested parties as being a "fair and equitable settlement" of the long-standing dispute.

Allen told newsmen after the committee hearing that he thought the Long Beach Oil Development Co., which under contract with the city has developed the oil, had made "exorbitant profits" during the past 13 years.

THE SIX-MAN conference committee on water legislation reported Wednesday night it was "making some progress" in its efforts to resolve basic differences between the Senate and the Assembly.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service reported today that the number of American millionaires was on the decline in 1952.

Israel Consul, in Village, Asks Defense Sinews

The Russian arms deal with Egypt is a real threat to the survival of the State of Israel, is the opinion of Ranan Sivan who addressed the Rotarians here yesterday. The newly-appointed Consul for Western United States described the overwhelming military power of the Arabs and said his nation must have strength in order to preserve peace in the Middle East.

"They will not attack us if we have arms," Sivan declared, "it is the only way we can defend ourselves. We do not want arms for aggression, only for defense," he said. "Israel is a sitting duck; we have no allies; cannot legally call on any nation for help."

Sivan told the Rotarians the tension in the Middle East may lead to a tremendous blow-up. He noted President Eisenhower recently said that the United States must have strength to preserve peace in the world, and commented, this is exactly what Israel needs."

President Don Miller announced there would be no meeting of the Palm Springs Rotary club next Wednesday because the local club was joining in the charter night observance of the newly organized Rotary Club of Cathedral City which will be held that day at Shadow Mountain club.

Clint Mitchell, chairman of the Rotary Boy Scout committee, announced that the Scouts will hold their annual Camporee at Tamarisk Park Saturday and urged all Rotarians to visit the camp sometime during the day.

Teenagers Tell Parley Liquor is Easy to Get

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Teenagers have told Gov. Goodwin J. Knight's conference on youth youngsters do a lot of drinking because liquor is easy to get.

The charge was made in the section devoted to the age of conflict, 12-17 years, and was reported by Laurence Dayton, assistant district attorney of Alameda County.

The youngsters said laws against providing liquor to minors were not strictly enforced.

Hospital Rejects Bids, Too High

Directors of Desert Hospital today rejected all bids submitted for construction of a new wing.

The six general bids were between $15,000 to $100,000 above the allocated amount, ranging from $365,000 to $468,000.

Consensus of board members was that the bids were "excessive," and it is planned to call for bids again at a later date.

The new wing was authorized by voters in a $350,000 bond election.

Pul-lease! My Henry uses nothing but Canada Dry!

Husbands are hard to please. Only the best is good enough. Naturally, their drinks must be flawless. Naturally, such drinks call for Canada Dry, either Ginger Ale, Club Soda or Quinine Water. Discerning people the world over prefer Canada Dry. And, domestically, it has been established that for complete compatibility between man and wife and between man and drink, always use Canada Dry.

MATCHLESS flavor... exclusive formulas... long-lasting "Pin-Point Carbonation"... brisk dryness... guarded purity. Taste for yourself why Canada Dry Ginger Ale and Club Soda are the largest-selling in the world and why Americans use more Canada Dry Quinine Water than all other quinine waters combined. This kind of recognition is not achieved overnight. It is built on half a century's devotion to quality.

Evening High School Swimming Class Applications Still Accepted

"Glass enclosed, heated pool, excellent facilities, hot showers, good instructor. What more is needed? Just warmer weather, please." That was the consensus Monday evening as the temporary cold weather discouraged applicants for the new course in swimming being offered by Palm Springs Adult Evening School.

Instruction will get under way officially next Monday, April 9, as warmer daytime temperatures promise ideal swimming conditions in the evening. Registrations are still being taken for beginning swimming at 7 p. m. and for intermediate swimming instruction at 8:30 p. m. at the high school pool.

The instructor is Doris Toney, elementary school teacher, who is teaching the Red Cross course in swimming which has specifically met the requirements of the state department of education.

There will be six to seven miles of hiking, part of it over fairly steep trails, and tenderfeet should not attempt the trip, according to Dr. C. E. Smith, Museum director.

There are an estimated 250,000 highway bridges in the United States.

Fred Eldridge Answers Cochran's Proposal of Non-Partisan Committee

Fred Eldridge (R), Corona rancher and ex-newspaperman who is running for Congress in the 29th District today stated emphatically that he will never represent the district through a committee of "political cronies."

His statement came on the heels of an announcement by another candidate — Mrs. Jacqueline Cochran Odum, that if elected, she would create a bipartisan committee to advise her on the district's problems.

Eldridge said: "I intend to take my advice from individuals and from the representatives of the established veterans, business, professional, minority, labor, and agricultural organizations — and the individual citizens within the district."

"I have no intention of offering the 29th Congressional District representation through political cronies, bipartisan or otherwise," Eldridge declared.

"I have to represent everybody, and have no intention of appointing some select committee."

Consideration of repaving Idyllwild Road in the Idyllwild area will be given consideration for inclusion in the program for the next fiscal year which commences July 1, 1956, the supervisors agreed this week on recommendation of Road Commissioner A. C. Keith and Supervisor Fred McCall.

The road is in a low-lying boggy area and the pavement provided by the subdivider some years ago has not held up, according to Keith. There were 26 signatures of property owners on petitions requesting the improvement.

Reds Stepping Up Tempo of Nuclear Tests

WASHINGTON — The Russians are stepping up their rate of nuclear test explosions on the eve of new U. S. H-bomb and atomic tests in the Pacific.

The Atomic Energy Commission disclosed that the Soviet Union "in recent days has conducted another nuclear test in their current series."

It was the sixth U. S. announcement of Soviet weapons tests in the past eight months.

This country will start its most extensive Pacific test program later this month. An ocean area of some 500,000 square miles has been made off limits for unauthorized persons, ships, and planes starting April 20.

The possibility arose that before the Spring and early Summer are over the two nations will be simultaneously detonating their newest versions of history's most devastating weapons.

The announcement was further evidence that the Russians are progressing faster than ever before in their development of new and different kinds of atomic weapons.

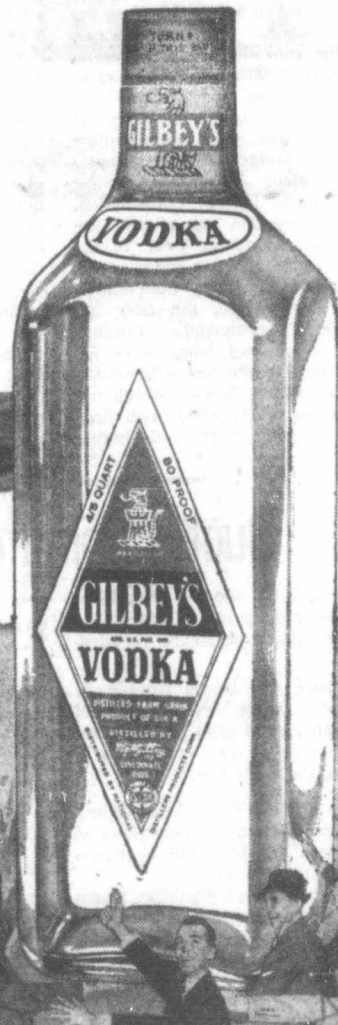

Although the United States has reported only six Russian test shots in eight months, there have been many indications from foreign sources that the actual total is considerably greater.

Voters Reminded of Qualifications

With elections coming up next Tuesday in four of the seven Councilmanic Districts, it is important that voters understand the requirement of residence in the district in which they vote. People who move from one district (or even voting precinct) to another must re-register if they have lived at the new address 54 days before the election. Persons who have not met their requirement are not qualified to vote and may be challenged.

People do quite a bit of moving around in Palm Springs and often forget to re-register. In past city elections it has been charged that some people who had moved out of a district many months — or even years — were permitted to vote in that district without being challenged. Where a candidate's majority was small the result might well have been changed. There was little doubt that a few people knowingly voted in a district in which they were not a legal resident, and an unpleasant court battle was averted only because of technicalities.

It may be that a lot of people are unaware that even though they move to another county precinct address in the same district, they still have to re-register if they moved 54 days before the election.

Resident requirement is particularly important in Councilmanic Elections because it is the intent of the law that only legally registered residents of the different districts are permitted to vote for a councilman who is to represent them on the City Council. For this reason voters should make sure that they are legally registered in the precinct at which they expect to vote. If not qualified to vote they could — and should — be challenged.

It is, of course, too late for anyone to re-register to vote at next Tuesday's election. If a person is not correctly registered they should not attempt to vote at this election but re-register right away so they will be qualified to vote at the next election.

Let's not have any more elections in which the results are questioned because of illegal voting. It is a very bad thing for the community and should never happen again.

Cherry Trees are in Bloom

A beautiful sight at this time of the year — one no resident of Palm Springs should miss — may be enjoyed by making the short trip into the Banning-Beaumont area where the cherry trees are in full bloom. Along with the almonds and other blossoming fruit trees, with their various shades of delicate to deep pink, these orchards are the delight of Spring.

By driving off Highway 99 into Cherry Valley heavy traffic can be avoided and the blossoming hillsides enjoyed all the more. Cherry Valley can be reached by turning north at Beaumont, and there are many roads that will lead back to the main highway.

Winter residents who do not go to Los Angeles much may not be aware of this beautiful sight so near to Palm Springs. It does not take over two hours to make the trip. If going around the middle of the day, a good place to have lunch is the Fireside Inn. It is run by women — and the food is excellent.

No Salaries for Felons
(Ontario Report)

Without drawing nearly as much public attention as the move deserved, Richard H. McCollister of San Anselmo, the Assembly majority floor leader, has put before the State Legislature a resolution that would easily qualify as the funniest legislation of this year if it were not so serious. The resolution, which has yet to be approved by the legislators, would provide an immediate end to paying expenses for members of the Assembly who are convicted of felonies and sent to prison.

Fantastic as it might seem to some California taxpayers, a person elected to the State Assembly and later convicted of a felony still draws his pay and expense money from the taxpayers while he is in prison. There has never been any provision in the law to stop a convicted legislator's salary until the end of his term, despite the fact it had to be mailed to him in a state penal institution, unless the convicted assemblyman were recalled or chose to resign.

What brought this point to light this past year was the conviction of Charles W. Lyon of Beverly Hills and G. Delbert Morris of Los Angeles, both members of the State Assembly. They were convicted of felonies connected with issuance of liquor licenses in Southern California. Both are now serving prison terms for these offenses.

Yet when Assemblyman Lyon was brought to the Chino Institution for Men here in the West End to serve out his term, he was still on the public payroll. Moreover, he chose to stay on it. As a consequence, CIM officials had to go through the fantastic business of calling one of the institution's prisoners to the front office so he could receive his state payroll check as an Assemblyman. In fact, Assemblyman Lyon was quite a rarity at CIM — a prisoner who continued to receive a substantial salary check from the same people against whom he had committed the crime for which he was sent to prison.

Because it deals with so many complicated problems, modern government does produce some fantastic individual mixups, but this inability of taxpayers to drop a convicted felon from the public payroll takes the prize. If the State legislators find themselves unable to agree upon anything else, they certainly should find themselves agreeing upon this one point. This weird situation must come to an end.

Back on Quip Stump

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat, St. Louis, Mo.)

Who was it said Adlai Stevenson had put his wit in mothballs for the '56 duration? Well, maybe he gave it an honest try. For months his cracking mots have been absent from lectern and stump circuit. His droll and tempered Ivy League subtleties had been noticeably shucked. Frankly, we missed them, politics or no.

Perhaps Democratic mentors feel he has backslid, but Adlai let fly with a flock of barbed fannies in his Minnesota vote foray. Probably the subzero weather made him feel sharp and reckless of results.

Anyhow, Mr. Stevenson observed in chortling form that GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall is "a man who shoots from the lip; who approaches every problem with an open mouth." In familiar fettle he allowed the Republican party has become known as "the party of Lincoln — and Cadillac." Adlai noted that when the President "reopened the door for Richard" the stock market went up a few notches, just as it does "in the face of a declaration of war or other national calamity."

So back to the Stevenson quip and crank and slightly wanton wile. Even if he does not unlatch the White House, we nominate him as the most adroit gag artist ever to have decorated national politics.

Harry Oliver is in a quandary. He's either got to find a hat stretcher or a head shrinker. Seems that Frank Bogert, of El Mirador (and other places) fame, presented Oliver with a neat black hat, just like the one he has been wearing since—well, anyway, since. That one with the hole in it. This new hat was whole, no hole.

But Harry's head is too big for the hat. Or perhaps the hat is too small for Harry's head.

ON TUESDAY, Oliver was scouring the town for a hat store.

"If I don't find one with a stretching apparatus, I'll have to have my head shrunk. And I don't like the idea."

Oliver said the only other solution would be to have someone deflate him with some unkind remarks.

"I don't like that idea, either. In fact, I'm practically impossible. I must find a hat stretcher to bring this fine gift up to G-size. G, you understand, stands for genius."

BOYS' CLUB WEEK is being observed throughout the nation this week.

In Palm Springs we have a fine example of the great work Boys' Clubs are doing.

More than a decade ago, the late Frank Partridge promoted the idea of a Boys' Club for Palm Springs. The local Lions Club backed him up with cash and labor. The club then grew so big that a separate corporation was formed to handle it and its affairs.

And anyone who is cognizant of the results obtained by the club knows it is doing a tremendous job—as are all of the other Boys' Clubs in the nation.

Walter Cowan is president of the local organization and Chuck LaFrantz, director and in charge of its programs.

SPEAKING OF SPECIAL weeks, next week is going to be a busy one. On tap are Pan American Week, American Comedy Week, National Noise Abatement Week and National Sunday School Week.

With Noise Abatement and Comedy both listed, do they mean that we shall have to laugh silently at any gags we might hear?

A good place for that would be on some of the TV and radio programs. I am always suspicious of those gales of laughter, anyway.

NOISE ABATEMENT WEEK brings up another idea.

How come that if your muffler—I mean, the one on your auto—fouls up and blows out, you get a ticket for making too much noise while cruising over the highways and/or byways?

Whereas the big trucks, which make many times the noise of a passenger car, can rumble and snort through town any time of day or night without a semblance of an effort to preserve the peace.

And motorcycles can roar down the road to jolt you out of sleep similarly unimpeded.

Looks like a double standard to me.

HAVEN'T MENTIONED auto license plates lately and didn't intend to today but a woman told me she saw BAX on an automobile which was having trouble with its automatic shift and it wouldn't.

And I personally saw HUE on a car which wasn't a two-tone job but a dusty, dull black.

Congressional Report

Committees at Work During Recess

Easter is a milestone in the work of a session. From the day Congress convenes, until this Easter break, the work is in the committee rooms; there are few long sessions, and few controversial bills hit the floor. After Easter, the pace accelerates; bills come out of legislative committees and go to the Rules Committee. A Rules Committee is the traffic director of a legislative body, at least of a Congress. At Sacramento, the bills used to come out of the committees and accumulate on the printed Calendar.

This year we really have an Easter recess. In previous years it was a rare thing to know, until the last moment (usually quite late for western Representatives) to make the necessary plans to go back to their Districts that we could get away. Even then, some committees (notably the committee on Appropriations) would continue its work through the "recess," which ordinarily consisted of three-day adjournments. There would be an understanding that no roll calls would take place, and no bills would be brought up. One House may recess for 72 hours, without the consent of the other House; for longer periods, a concurrent resolution must be adopted by both Houses.

We "closed for business" on Good Friday and will not reopen until April 9. A few committees will meet. The staffs of all offices will be here, and some Members, like your own Congressman, will take advantage of the opportunity to catch up on routine work, and get a little ahead, in advance of the busy three months to follow. This is particularly true in our office, as committee work has been heavy, and I was laid up for a few days with some sort of virus attack.

SPEAKING OF committee work, as you know, I am on the subcommittee on Public Works, of the committee on Appropriations (in addition to Independent Offices) and my reason for being there has to do with the last election. My subcommittee had the budgets for the Tennessee Valley Authority and for the Atomic Energy Commission. In the election one of the Republican members went to the Senate and the two others were "bumped off" the subcommittee. I remained, the only Republican sufficiently familiar with these two budgets to follow them to the new subcommittee on Public Works, which has AEC and TVA, along with flood control and river and harbor projects, not to mention irrigation and reclamation projects. It is a chore.

It is also a mental strain. Let me give you one example. In 1948, Congress wrote into the law this restriction: "None of the power revenues of the TVA shall be used for the construction of new power producing projects (except for replacement purposes) unless and until approved by act of Congress." (61 Stat 577)

Fairly clear, isn't it? No doubt in your mind as to the "intent" of the Congress? Well, let me tell you how TVA regards it. On Sept. 23, 1955, TVA requested authority from the Budget Bureau to construct five additional units; to existing steam plants, to be paid for from power revenues.

ACTUALLY, WE NOW find TVA had already sent out letters of intent for one of these new units. Penalties, in case of cancellation, were accruing. The Bureau of the Budget turned down the request, but said TVA might ask Congress for an appropriation to build this one unit (already on order without authorization) and might also ask Congress to let it (TVA) build two other units from power revenues, or to issue revenue bonds for that specific purpose.

Now we discover, through a report of the Comptroller General, dated March 26, 1956, that on January 17, 1956, the TVA Directors had already authorized letters of intent for a total of seven such additional units, all without Congressional approval. The authorizations total $30,000,000 worth of equipment, for the initial stages, which means a total of $178,000,000 when the units are completed. The units will produce 1,171,000 kilowatts of additional power, or 60 per cent of the total power of the TVA in 1948.

To show you that you have a personal interest in this story, remember that 180,000 kws. of the first unit will go to the Reynolds Company which had planned to put up a 235,000 kw. plant at its own expense, in another state, until the TVA convinced it the taxpayers of all states of the USA, including California, would be willing to subsidize the power for them.

That isn't the whole story, but my space has run out. As I've asked you so many times in the past dozen years, how do you like this evidence of the arrogance of bureaucracy? It's your money, you know!

Of all the stars on hand at the party, and there were plenty, Joan was the one most besieged by well-wishes and autograph seekers . . . What's Miss Crawford's secret weapon for survival in this fabu-

Every red-blooded reporter and photographer in Hollywood was out at M-G-M last weekend to watch Joan Collins do her bathtub scene for "The Opposite Sex" — the very same bathtub scene that Miss Crawford did in "The Women." This is a remake of the old Crawford movie.

ROBERT S. ALLEN:

Nuclear Test Date Set

WASHINGTON—The next series of U.S. nuclear tests gets underway in the South Pacific sometime between April 15 and 20.

Depending on the weather, the first explosion will occur between those dates.

These tests will be the longest and, in certain respects, the most important ever conducted by the U.S. on an almost weekly basis, they will continue into July, and possibly August.

Further significance attaches to this period because for the first time all three atomic powers will be conducting weapons experiments.

Britain will stage two sets of tests, both in Australia. The first will be on the barren Monte Bello Islands around May 1; the second at Maralinga, a new proving ground 500 miles west of Woomera. The Soviets' explosions in Siberia are now on a year-round basis. The latest was in early March, and one or more are likely this month.

The new U.S. series in the Marshall Islands will cost upwards of $80,000,000.

The Joint Task Force conducting these vital experiments consists of 50 naval vessels, several hundred military planes, and thousands of scientists, technicians and specialists of all kinds. The giant operation is under the command of Admiral Byron H. Hanlon.

WHAT'S PLANNED — Slated for testing is an extensive range of new weapons and devices; among them an anti-aircraft missile armed with an atomic warhead, and an air-to-air missile with a nuclear warhead. This remarkable new weapon will be test-fired against a drone jet plane carrying an atomic bomb.

Another outstanding experiment will be the first U.S. air-drop of H-bombs. All previous American hydrogen explosions have been stationary. This time, an Air Force bomber will drop an H-bomb from a great height.

The utmost precautions are being taken to avoid a repetition of the mishaps during the 1954 explosions, when radioactive "fall-out" hit a Navy ship, Japanese fishermen and natives on islands hundreds of miles away. Foremost among the added safeguards are the following:

A vast "danger area" has been marked out of more than 420,000 square miles.

Greatly improved techniques and equipment will provide much more reliable weather information, particularly as regards changes in wind direction and speed.

Before each explosion, extensive air and sea patrols will be conducted to ensure that no vessel or plane has strayed into the "danger area."

Similar far-flung patrols will also be sent out after each test. They will particularly gather radiological and other important data.

Weather and Public Health Service personnel will be stationed on all the islands in the "danger area," for the two-fold purpose of protecting the natives and compiling certain reports.

SPECIAL LICENSE PLATES for service connected double amputees or wheelchair veterans are being issued this year fee exempt, by the State of California. One of the first such plates to be seen in the Village was on a car belonging to William and Dolley Howe of Encino, who were recent guests at the Rossmore Hotel. Pictured above are Mr. and Mrs. Howe and Stanley Spiegelman (left, owner of the hotel) as they discuss the issuing of the special plate (inset). Howe received his plates through the Paralyzed Veterans Association at Birmingham Hospital. He said that there were approximately 200 VET plates issued in this state. Though last year the State had a special issue (the IQ series), they cost the veterans $8. (Desert Sun Photo.)

Sorting of Mail Aids Customer and Post Office

The public receives a double-barreled benefit by sorting bundles of mail into "local" and "out-of-town," Postmaster Williams said today.

When the post office receives mail that is separated, Williams said, it speeds up the distribution process and permits earlier dispatch of out-of-town mail. "A difference of minutes can be important. A letter that just misses a scheduled departure has to wait for a later dispatch and that often results in a 24-hour delay in delivery."

"So the first of the double-barreled benefits the public receives by sorting letters is faster, better mail service."

The postmaster said the second benefit is the saving in manpower that results when postal employees do not have to sort the letters and arrange them so the stamps are all facing the same direction for the cancelling machine.

"When you consider the volume of mail handled by the Palm Springs post office—45,000 letters a day the man-hour savings become substantial. Naturally such savings make the operation of the postal service more efficient and economical, and that benefits the taxpayer," he added.

The post office has labels reading "All local" or "All for out-of-town delivery" which will be furnished free of charge in request from anyone who is mailing enough letters to form bundles, Williams said. Whenever possible, airmail letters should be separated from other out-of-town letters.

In conclusion, he again urged all mailers to deposit mail as early and frequently in the day as possible.

Tax Deadline Reminder Given

Second installment of the 1955-56 taxes must be paid by 5 p. m., Tuesday, April 10, V. M. Hyde, county tax collector, warned today.

Remittance postmarked prior to that time will be accepted without penalty. After that time a penalty of six per cent will be added to the amount of tax, plus costs of $1 for each assessment.

AWOL Soldier Picks on Wrong Motorist

L.A. May Buy P.E. Routes For Roads

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A $2,184,514 county plan to buy Pacific Electric rights of way for major highway routes was ready today for consideration by the Board of Supervisors.

Chief Administrative Officer Arthur B. Will submitted the plan. It calls for purchase of seven old P.E. routes within the next three fiscal years.

United States Now Rivals England as Chief Market for Hine Cognacs

The United States is currently rivaling England for the position it has held for nearly 193 years as the chief market for the Cognacs of T. Hine & Co., Francois Hine, head of the French firm, disclosed on his arrival here from France during his five-week tour of the major markets in this country and Canada.

Mr. Hine, who is the fifth generation of his family to head the house which was founded in 1763, explained that this impending change of position is not the result of a falling off in English sales but rather of spectacular increases here.

DURING THE PAST three years sales of all Cognacs here have nearly doubled, going from 160,000 cases in bottles and 16,000 in bulk in 1952 to a total in 1955 of 305,000 cases of bottles and 24,000 cases of bulk.

An even greater percentage increase, however, has been scored by the three Hine Cognacs (5-Star, Imperiale and Triomphe) which are imported and distributed by "21" Brands, Inc., he said. The high level of prosperity in this country and the attendant "trading up" evidently applies to Cognac, too, he suggested, pointing out that Hine has always been a favorite in England because of its characteristic dryness.

Four Parties Mark Activity at Sky Ridge

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hood entertained at breakfast at Sky Ridge Trailer Park, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ken White on their thirty-second wedding anniversary.

On Thursday evening, in the club house at Sky Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thatcher showed pictures of "The Holy Land". They were enjoyed by all those present, as was Mrs. Thatcher's commentary. Clara Hancock furnished a light lunch following the pictures.

All the shuffleboard participants enjoyed a dessert luncheon furnished from the proceeds left in the shuffleboard treasury. It was served by the ladies in the Park.

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Rhoda entertained at a luncheon for their granddaughter and some of her teen-age friends.

Thrifty Drug Observes 1-Cent Sale in Store

One of the biggest merchandising events of the year, a gigantic "1c Sale," is now in progress at Palm Springs Thrifty Drug Store.

The sale will continue through Saturday with huge savings in all departments, Thrifty officials revealed today.

"Twice a year our buyers make important purchases for these special 1c sales," stated Manny Borun, vice-president of the California drug chain. "We know our many customers will be pleased with the bargains which are a feature of this special sales event."

Among the wide variety of items highlighted in the Thrifty sale are nylon viscose rugs, Borbro aspirin tablets, Betty Woods Hand Cream, and regular decalcium phosphate with viosterol.

Thrifty originated the popular "1c Sale" many years ago and in doing so established a popular tradition for top values and increased savings, Borun said.

Mrs. Adrian E. Cameron, secretary of the Desert Arabian Horse Association and a member of the San Jacinto Mountain Wilderness and Trails Association, will be Riverside County Women's Chairman in the campaign to elect U. S. Senator Thomas E. Kuchel.

In accepting her appointment, Mrs. Cameron said members of the women's division will "ring doorbells throughout Riverside county to get out the vote" for the Republican incumbent at the June 5 primary election.

Easter Week Brings Guests to Copass Home

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Copass and children, Diane and Jackie, had numerous Easter week guests at their home on South Calle Marcus. Among them was Mr. Copass' aunt, Mrs. Mabel Tweedy of Downey, who has recently returned from a three-month around-the-world tour. With her was her granddaughter Miss Trina Ripley, also of Downey.

Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ripley* and daughter, Lisa of Downey and Mrs. Charles Ripley Sr. of Laguna Beach, were also entertained at dinner at the Copass home, and Mrs. Tweedy, who will leave May 1 for a tour of the United States, was hostess at a dinner party at Howard Manor.

Other guests were Mrs. Muriel Kallestadt, her daughter Mrs. June McCowin, and granddaughters Michele and Candy, of Inglewood. The group enjoyed luncheon and swimming at the Ranch Club and a barbecue at the Copass home.

Other Easter week visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cotter and family of Downey, and Mrs. Cotter's mother Mrs. Kaye Marlow of Pico.

AAUW to Meet

The American Association of University Women will meet next Thursday evening, April 10, at 7:45, at the home of Mrs. Carl Nordell at 669 Chino Canyon, with Mrs. Joseph Furr as the speaker.

TWO BIRTHDAYS were celebrated Monday night at the party given by the Howard Morriszes at their home on Cactus Road. It was the birthday of the hostess and of one of the guests, Mrs. Donald L. Mills. Mrs. Morris is on the left of the big birthday cake, with Captain Mills, who is Commanding Officer of Miramar Naval Air

Newport Art Exhibit Entries Close April 19

Revealing the talents of professional and non-professional artists in the Southland, the Newport Harbor Art Exhibit, now entering its eleventh year, will open to the public on April 25 on a four-day showing. Artists who wish to submit their oil and/or watercolor are reminded to do so before April 16 at all pick-up stations or before April 19 at the high school.

When canvasses and watercolors have hung in preceding exhibits, bearing signatures such as Rex Brandt, Delmar Yoakum, Phil Dike, Francis de Eardley and Emil Kosa Jr., patrons d'art echo their enthusiasm of the past and eagerly await the opening of this Spring's purchase-award exhibit.

The Spring exhibit will be juried this year by Jean Boggs, William Brice and Howard Clapp. Entrants may submit their paintings to the following pick-up stations: Ted Gibson's, Laguna Beach Art Gallery, Long Beach Municipal Art Center and Scripps College.

Mrs. Jack Copass spent two days last week in Los Angeles with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Montee, as her father has been very ill. Mr. Montee, who is 93 and the oldest active licensed airplane pilot in the world, is much improved.

New Play to Open at Playhouse

Re-arranging his production schedule, Herb Rogers will present "No Time for Comedy," play by S. N. Behrman, at the Palm Springs Playhouse starting Tuesday evening, April 10, with the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild sponsoring the event. Marrian Walters and Michael Ferrall will co-star in the sophisticated comedy nightly at 8:30 o'clock through Sunday evening, April 15.

Important parts will be assigned to Sidney Brees and Phyllis Flax. Ferrall also stages the production, which concerns the romantic adventures of a brilliant young playwright specializing in the field. Complications occur when the author develops an interest in a young lady who becomes competition for a beautiful young actress who has a prior commitment on his romantic behavior.

Playing this week is "The Little Foxes" which will close Sunday night.

Rogers will conclude his Palm Springs Playhouse season on Sunday, April 22.

Birthday Dinner is a Surprise

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jarrett of South Calle Marcus, entertained at a dinner at the Ranch Club honoring Jack Copass on his birthday.

Mrs. Copass and their children Dianne and Jackie, and the Jarretts' houseguest Danny Eubanks of Monrovia, were in the party, which was a surprise for the guest of honor.

There was a lighted birthday cake and "Happy Birthday" was sung by the orchestra and guests. Mrs. Copass surprised her husband with a gift membership to the Ranch Club.

Guests Relax After Easter Holiday Week

Guests of the Palm Springs Biltmore are relaxing after the hectic holiday week. Mr. and Mrs. Sid Rogell and son Tony, Los Angeles, are among the many that enjoyed the fun. Mr. Rogell is production manager of 20th Century-Fox, and Mrs. Rogell is June Clayworth of the TV "City Detective" series.

Others include Mr. and Mrs. Archie Marschak, from Chicago (he is vice president of the National Bank of Commerce), Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Bassman of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hyman and daughter Carol and son Buddy of Denver.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Ken Carpenter of Los Angeles (he is announcer for the Bing Crosby show), Mrs. Sam Herzikoff and daughter Jane (Mrs. Herzikoff is the wife of Dr. Herzikoff, noted surgeon at the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital), Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hoffman of Beverly Hills (Mr. Hoffman is the owner of the Louis Milani Foods).

Zappe to Head Chamber

Other Officers Include Clark, Lamb and Moon

CATHEDRAL CITY — Claude Cobb, president of the Chamber of Commerce, last night relinquished the gavel and turned over the leadership of the Chamber to Orvil Zappe, local civic leader.

Zappe was elected as head of the chamber following a ballot of the directors of the chamber at their regular meeting of the body this month. He is also president of the Cathedral City Area Business Association.

OTHER OFFICERS elected to the organization during the 1955-57 year are Paul Clark, first vice president and active participant in community affairs for many years; Burton Lamb, second vice president and Cathedral City contractor; and Warner Moon, secretary and head of the county library branch in this community. This is Moon's seventh term as secretary of the Chamber.

The board of directors unanimously appointed Mrs. Bessie Kelley as treasurer of the organization, for her third term in this position.

The new board includes the officers and Bert Wade, George Miller, Ed Jorgensen, Ivan Sharp, Dr. John Beukema, Walter Melrose, Mike Gorden, Emil Greener, George Zentmyer and outgoing president Claude Cobb.

THE CHAMBER is currently discussing a building program of a new town hall, but as yet has made no decision on the issue. The proposal was made by Moon at a special meeting of the organization a week ago. At that time Moon said that the present town hall was growing too small to take care of the terrific growth of that community (statistics show that Cathedral City has grown more than 80 per cent since last June) and that each day more and more organizations want a meeting place. Now the only place available is the town hall.

During this year the Chamber of Commerce has relinquished its meeting time in the hall to allow the newly formed Junior Women's Club to meet there and today they are meeting in the library building.

One of the biggest questions that faces the new board of directors of the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce in the coming year is the "hot potato" of what will Cathedral City do next? Incorporate, annex, or form a special service district.

Students Proud of Answer to Letters to Ike

CATHEDRAL CITY—While discussing Lincoln, Washington and others in observance of President's Day, March 4, the students in C. F. Irvine's 6th grade room decided to write individual letters to President Eisenhower. All the letters, with a note from Irvine, were mailed in one large envelope.

Here is the answer that Mr. Irvine and the students are so proud of:

The White House,
Washington.
Assistant to the President.
Dear Mr. Irvine:
The President has received your letter and asks if you will not be good enough to tell your pupils that their fine letters pleased him very much. They have his warm thanks for their thoughtfulness in writing. The President is also grateful for your friendly expressions. It certainly is helpful to him to know he has your confidence and support.

(Signed) Sincerely,
Sherman Adams.
They are going to frame the letter and have it on display for the School's Open House later this month.

Over one hundred children attended the Easter egg hunt at Sun-air Park last Saturday morning, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club, assisted by the Senior Club. Prizes were won by Billy Scott for finding the prize egg, and by Patti Patane for finding the most eggs.

The boys of the upper grades at Cathedral School have formed a softball league of four teams. Games are played during the noon recess. The teams are named, "Rockets," "Comets," "Meteors," and "Stars." As a climax the two leading teams will play an "Out of This World Series." Bob Irvine is their coach, and the boys of the lower grades anxiously look forward to the day they will be big enough to join the league.

Cathedral City Notes

CATHEDRAL CITY—Mrs. Carroll Lynch of 66-528 "C" Street had this to say of May Day, 1955. It could be as equally descriptive of April Fool's Day, 1956.

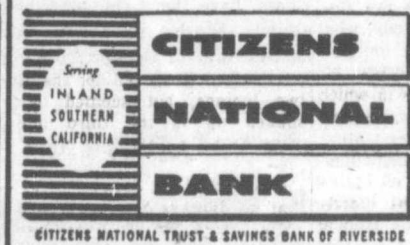

MAY DAY—1955
Charming, flowery May
The essence of Spring
Usually warm and gentle
When ushered in.
Flipped back the calendar
On unwary folk
Had us shiver-err-ing
When we awoke.
Mountain crests blanketed
With new fallen snow
Just when the old coverlet
Had decided to go.
Played pranks on fishermen
Bent on catching trout
Stopped by foul weather
Here and there about.
Blue skies blackened
Clouds yielded to rain
The sun/streaked through
Then gone again.
Winds howled fiendishly
Woo hoo! hoo hoo!
Kicked around welcome mats
Put out for you.
Was it April's final punch?
Or was it caprice, May?
An evil spirit—
That led you astray?

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (AP) — They start batting the ball in the aptly-named Masters Golf Tournament today and the odds are that one of the old masters of the fairways will win.

This is an event which, in the short span of two decades, has bounced front and center in the sports world. The reason for its rapid rise is no mystery.

The Masters was founded by, and rose on the popularity of, one of the most magic names in sports.

That would be Bobby Jones. The "Emperor" put this one into action in 1934 when he took a one-time indigo plantation converted into a nursery and turned it into a lush, beautiful and very demanding golf course. Founded on his reputation, it blossomed on a fine format and resultant publicity.

NO MATTER WHAT you hear, the golfing sharpshooters would rather win the U.S. Open because of its legendary qualities and perpetual renown. They also would rather win the Tam O'Shanter "World" because of its $50,000 payoff. But this one stands no worse than third ahead, even, of the PGA.

You're right when you say it is aptly-named, too. Because with only one or two exceptions, it has been the exclusive property of the golfing masters. Sam Snead and Jimmy Demaret took it three times; Ben Hogan, Horton Smith and Byron Nelson each twice, and rounding out the list are such as Gene Sarazen, Ralph Guldahl, Craig Wood and others of their storied ilk.

There is a reason. This is the tournament on which they change over from the hard-patched billiard tables of the Winter tour to the lush, groomed courses of the Summer tour. They must, suddenly, readjust their "touch." The "masters" are better at the switch.

DOWN AT AUGUSTA they have been lucky, too, in the fantastic comeback which have backed up the publicity.

The most famous was Sarazen's double eagle in the final round in which he picked up three shots and tied Wood, beating him in a playoff. But there have been many other glittering cases on a course where the greens are king-sized.

The final nine holes have been the man-killers, tabbed by Jones as the "make or break" route where a man "can play it in 30 as Demaret did once or can throw a man into the 40's," as Wood did on his first round 88 in 1936.

In 1939, Guldahl led by four shots going to the final nine and Nelson picked up six shots in two holes to win. In 1939, Guldahl needed a 34 in to tie Snead, and eagled the 13th for a 33 which won. In 1940, Snead fired eight birdies on the final round to win. In 1942, Nelson went six under par on 11 holes to best Hogan in a playoff, gaining five strokes over a stretch in which Hogan was one under par. And in 1950, Jim Ferrier had a five stroke lead with nine holes to play—and Demaret picked up seven shots in six holes to win.

That's why it's the "Masters."

Five Oilers on Olympic Team

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Five members of the champion Phillips Oilers from Bartlesville, Okla., today were named to the 12-man United States Olympic basketball squad to play in Melbourne, Australia, next November.

They are center Chuck Darling, formerly of Iowa; Buddy Halderson and Bob Jeagerard, both formerly of Colorado; Jim Walsh of Stanford; and Bill Hougland, Kansas, the only repeat performer on the 1956 squad.

Big Bill Russell of San Francisco led a three-man College All-Star group. His teammate, K. C. Jones, also was named, as was Carl Cain of Iowa.

Bill Evans, former Kentucky ace, Gib Ford of Texas and Ron Tomasic of Stanford were picked from the Armed Forces team. Dick Boushka of St. Louis rounded out the squad.

The six alternates named were Joe Dean, Louisiana State; Hal Lear, Temple; Willie Nauls, UCLA; Ray Warren, Texas Christian; and Charles Koon and Terry Rand, Marquette.

Phillips won the crown from the College All-Stars, 79-75, Wednesday night while the Seattle Buchanan Bakers downed the Armed Forces, 82-79.

Favor Middlecoff at Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Cary Middlecoff today was rated as one of the favorites to win the fourth annual Las Vegas Tournament of Champions April 26-29 at the Desert Inn golf course.

Wilbur Clark, owner of the Desert Inn, told a meeting of tournament officials Tuesday that Middlecoff had shown much improvement this year and had a good chance of winning the event.

MASTERS DRAWS GOLFDOM'S STARS

84 Tee Off in Golf Classic this Morning

Hogan, Snead And Middlecoff Top Favorites In Event

By WILLIAM TUCKER

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Ben Hogan felt good, Cary Middlecoff felt better, and Sam Snead had a brace of sub-par practice rounds to belie his aches and pains today when they tee off for the golden Masters golf crown.

The strongly-favored threesome were among a record 84 golfers, old and new, starting the first round over the Augusta National Course which began as an idea in Bobby Jones' mind and has blossomed to one of the premier events of American sport.

Starting at 10:20 a.m. EST, when two old gentlemen stepped out of the past to renew a fiery acquaintance as playing partners, the Masters paraded golf's glittering figures before a gallery drawn from all points.

THE OLDESTERS were Fred McLeod and Jock Hutchison, American and British Open champions of an eon ago.

Crackling heat and strong winds had whipped the course into the kind of shape the Masters arrangers wanted. After toiling Wednesday night and into the morning, they figured it wouldn't be the same course that bowed to 68's and 70's the past few days Masters veterans agreed.

"When that man gets through with that hose, roller and that mower tonight, you won't know those greens and we'll be back where we started every year bucking par," summed up Jimmy Demaret, three-time Masters winner who is making a comeback in tournament play.

Similar sentiments came from other veterans who had hoped against hope that the weather wouldn't dry up in time to quicken the billowing Augusta national greens.

TOURNAMENT EVE found Hogan, the accomplished little Texan who scored the all-time Masters low of 274 in 1953 after fighting back from a near-fatal highway smashup, sitting quietly by himself in the locker room in a wing of the Augusta clubhouse. He had just finished 14 holes and said his game was good and he felt good; his bad leg hadn't bothered him a bit.

Middlecoff, 1955 champion and strong favorite to become the Masters' first repeater, said he had overcome his weariness from trudging the national's hills and dales and had his putter working.

Snead, only three time winner beside Demaret, fussed and fretted but was eight-under-par the last two days of practice.

More than a score of amateurs are in the field including Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N. C. The Masters hopes to uncover another Patton, or get a repeat from the same guy who almost took the title two years ago.

Junior Tennis Finals Slated for Saturday

Finals in the Junior tennis tournament, conducted by the City Recreation Department, are scheduled for Saturday morning at the Tennis Club.

Howard Haddock, supervisor for the department, warned all entrants that preliminary play must be completed by tomorrow night.

Palm Springs Kiwanis Club will send the winners of the tournament to the National Junior Tennis tournament, slated in August at Arcadia.

BEN HOGAN is back in action again after semi-retirement in the 20th annual Masters golf tournament at Augusta, Ga. And from the way he performed in the practice rounds, he is expected to share the spot of favorite in the event which started today with Sam Snead.

Defending champion Cary Middlecoff is also among the top choices. The tournament will honor Horton Smith, winner of the first Masters in 1934, for his play in all of the tourneys. He has played every round. (International)

New Speed Records Seen at Salton Sea

Some of the fastest inboards and runabouts in the southland area are expected to compete and possibly establish new records this weekend in a Spring Regatta at Desert Shores on the Salton Sea.

Salton Sea, which annually stages a Fall regatta, was chosen for this Spring event because so many records have been established there.

There are nine events on the weekend program for inboard hydros and runabouts and 100-mph-plus speeds are expected.

Greatest speed thrills are expected in the 7-litre class in which some of the southland's speediest pilots will compete.

The "7 Grand," owned by Richard Hallett and Keith Black, is a new entry and will be closely watched as will be the "Galloping Gael," driven by Joy Murphy of Piedmont. Henry J. Kaiser's "Restless" will also be seen in action.

P.S. Netters Down Hemet

The Palm Springs Boys' tennis team continued their winning ways, sweeping all seven matches from the Hemet Bulldogs yesterday.

The contest, held on the Bulldog's court, saw all the Indian netmen win in straight sets.

Indian Rally Falls Short in 10-9 Loss to Arabs

A six-run Palm Springs rally in the last inning fell one run short as the local baseballers were beaten by the Coachella Arabs, 10-9 yesterday in a practice game.

It was by far an improvement over the last meeting of the two teams when the Arabs blasted the Indians 25-10.

Starting pitcher, Lloyd Brubaker, went the route for the Palm Springs nine, allowing 12 hits. He pitched scoreless ball for the first two innings, but "seemed" to be shaken up in the third inning when he hit a Coachella player in the head. The boy was taken to the hospital and x-rays revealed that no damage had been done.

The Arabs scored 5 runs in the third inning and the Indians came back for 2 runs in the bottom of the frame. Coachella picked up two more in the fourth and another three in the fifth. Brubaker then settled down and held the Arabs scoreless for the remainder of the contest.

The local nine came into the seventh inning trailing by seven runs. Four hits coupled with three walks and two crucial Coachella errors on double play balls produced six runs. Victor Reyes ended the rally, however, with a hard smash to third with the bases loaded.

The Indian J.V.'s lost to the baby Arabs 6-3 in another seven inning contest.

Local Spikesters to Host Banning

Seeking their second victory in a row, the Palm Springs track team will meet the Banning Brocos tomorrow on the local track.

The Banning team has shown very little in their first two starts. In their last meet with Coachella, they lost by the overwhelming score of 260-15. Indian coach, Clare Ballagh, stated that there is very little interest in track at Banning and added that the Bronco squad consists of about 15 members.

The Indians are in good shape and regard the meet as a tuneup for the Eastern-RCL finals a week from Friday.

In their last outing, the local squad finished sixth in a field of 20 schools in the Laguna Beach Invitational. Gene Prieto took the only first for the Indians, winning the 880.

Stewart Moves Up

PALERMO, Italy (AP) — Hugh Stewart of San Marino, Calif., gained the second round in men's singles at the Palermo International Tennis Tournament Wednesday by defeating Antonio Cascino of Italy, 6-0, 6-0.

Four-Way Tie at Thunderbird

Four foursomes are tied at the halfway mark of the Thunderbird Country Club's third annual Trans-Mississippi Senior Golf Tournament, and headed into the final 18-hole round this morning.

Each of the leading teams have best-ball scores of 14-under-par 57. The windup, best individual score match, starts tomorrow morning. Gail Cave, Harrison Smith and Carl Haymond are favored in the future Joust.

Leaders after yesterday's play are as follows:

A. C. McManus, Dick Snideman, C. E. Needham and H. Irving.
Bill Tavernier, Harrison Smith, Bill Gargan and Gordon Prentice.
Bill Allen, Glenn Thomas, Lloyd Russell and Ed Sayre.
Harry Whitaker, M. E. Gray, Harold McAllister and Max Wyman.

Martinez Seeks Chance at Saxton

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Vince Martinez' lopsided television victory over Miguel Diaz will be followed "within a week" by the offer of a $100,000 guarantee for a bout with welterweight champion Johnny Saxton, Martinez' manager said today.

Entries Close in Senior Tennis Event Monday

Village tennis players planning to enter the annual City Recreation Department Senior tennis tournament were reminded today by Howard Haddock, recreation supervisor, that entries for the event will close April 9.

Play will start after that when drawings are posted. Semi-finals are scheduled for May 5 at the Tennis Club with finals slated May 6 at the Racquet Club.

Entry blanks may be signed at the City Hall, Tennis Club or with Helena Stumpf at the Palm Springs Import, 156 North Palm Canyon Drive.

There will be competition in men's singles, men's doubles, women's singles and mixed doubles.

The tournament is open to any Palm Springs resident or property owner here.

Jones Takes Ranch Trophy

Bobby Jones, of Whittier, beat Maurice Smith, of Palm Springs, in a hard-fought final set that nearly was washed away in Sunday evening's rain for the singles trophy in the Ranch Club Invitational Tennis Tournament, according to club pro Carl Schroeder.

Jones took the first set, 6-4, lost the second, 6-8, and bounded, or swam back, to take the last group and the trophy, 10-8.

Weekend before, Geary Steffan and Quay Sergeant beat Frank Ripley and Jack Diamond in the finals of the doubles division to take that winners' cup, Schroeder stated.

Fight Results

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Vince Martinez, 147½, Paterson, N.J., outpointed Miguel Diaz, 150, Cuba, 10.

By UNITED PRESS

DELAND, Fla. (AP) — Manager Eddie Joost of the San Francisco Seals says he is prepared to take over the shortstop spot for his team if rookie Jim Mahoney can't fill the job.

The squad rested today in preparation for tomorrow's flight to the West Coast. Making the trip will be Ted Bowsfield, Ed Grba, Jack Osborn, Stan Willis, Nini Tornay, Albie Pearson, Sal Taormina, Bob DiPietro, Mahoney, Joost and coach Glenn Wright.

ANAHEIM (AP) — The Hollywood Stars split their squad today as one team met the Sacramento Solons here and the other played Boise of the Pioneer League at Ontario.

The Stars yesterday dropped an exhibition game to the Portland Beavers, 13-6.

Veteran Ben Wade has been named as Hollywood's starting pitcher for the team's PCL opener at Hollywood against the defending champion Seattle Rainiers.

Padres Close Local Season Here Friday

Final Spring Game Scheduled Against Vancouver Mounties

Palm Springs baseball fans will get their last chance to see the San Diego Padres in action at the Polo Grounds tomorrow when Vancouver's Mounties come over here from Fullerton.

It will be the final game of the Spring training season here. The scheduled game with Sacramento Saturday was cancelled yesterday by General Manager Ralph Kiner of the Pads who will take his team to the border city tomorrow night. They open the Pacific Coast League 1956 season at San Diego next Tuesday against Los Angeles.

YESTERDAY, the Pads bowed to Vancouver at Fullerton, 8 to 9, after leading all of the way into the last half of the ninth.

In that stanza, the Mounties overcame an 8 to 2 deficit with a seven-run outburst. Catcher Len Neal boomed out a grand slam home-run in this inning to pace the Vancouver team in its victory.

Indians' Vets Arouse Hope for Pennant

Lemon And Feller Convince Lopez They're In Shape

By FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer

Bob Lemon and Bob Feller had Manager Al Lopez convinced—at long last—that they'll be major factors in helping the Cleveland Indians try to recapture the American League pennant.

The 35-year-old Lemon and the 37-year-old Feller eased Lopez' worries Wednesday when they teamed for a 5-hit performance that gave the Indians a 2-0 triumph over the New York Giants at Austin, Tex. Lemon yielded four hits for six innings and then Feller completed the shutout when he allowed only one blow the remainder of the way.

WITH OPENING DAY less than two weeks distant, the pitching seemed to be improving all around the Grapefruit Circuit.

The Cincinnati Redlegs got 5-hit pitching from Bill Kennedy, Brooks Lawrence and Hershel Freeman to beat the Washington Senators, 5-0.

Dick Marlowe and Bob Miller, meanwhile, teamed up in a 7-hit job to pitch the Detroit Tigers to a 2-1 win over the Boston Red Sox.

The Pittsburgh Pirates snapped Art Ceccarelli's string of 20 scoreless innings by scoring three times in the second inning and went on to beat the Kansas City Athletics, 4-2.

THE PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES, also getting capable pitching, scored three runs off Bob Grim in the eighth inning to down the New York Yankees, 4-3.

The other two games involved plenty of blows as the Milwaukee Braves edged out the Brooklyn Dodgers, 7-5, amid a flurry of threats, alleged beanballs and fistcuffs at Mobile, Ala., and the Baltimore Orioles crushed the Chicago Cubs, 15-4, with a 15-hit attack.

DHS Diagonal Road Hearing Set for May 1 by Planning Commission

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — A hearing on the controversial diagonal road will be held here by the County Planning Commission on May 1.

County Planning Director Tyler Suss this week notified DHS Chamber of Commerce President Al Horton of the hearing, to be held the evening of May 1 in the Veterans Hall here.

Supervisor George Berkey, County Road Commissioner A. C. Keith, the full seven-man membership of the planning commission, and other county officials are expected to be present.

PROPOSERS OF three plans for improved access to DHS are expected to state their cases before the county officials. The three plans are:

1—A diagonal road taking off from Indian avenue about a half mile north of the overpass, and

Berkey Submits Another Plan for Use of Substandard Homes

"I've a suggestion," announced Supervisor George Berkey at this week's session of the board of supervisors. "I've tried to dream up something that might be practical to eliminate wholesale moving in of substandard homes, but still take care of individuals who might better themselves by use of such structures."

Berkey proposed that substandard houses moved into uncodified areas of the county again be freed from building code requirements provided all other sections of the house moving ordinance are complied with, and if the repairs and alterations to be made will result in a completed structure which is equal to or better structurally than the average dwellings within a 1000-foot radius as determined by the chief building inspector, and also provided all electrical and plumbing provisions of the county building code ordinance are complied with.

BERKEY'S SUGGESTION provided that a permit to move a substandard structure into an uncodified area should be issued only when the chief building inspector determines that the applicant intends to use the building for his own dwelling and that failure to issue the permit would result in an inferior dwelling being lived in by the applicant.

Conferees Drafting Bill to Up Farm Aid $1,000,000,000

By UNITED PRESS
Congressional conferees neared completion today on drafting a farm aid bill designed to put an extra $1 billion in farmers' pockets this year.

The House - Senate Conference Committee planned to complete voting on the bill Friday — three days before Congress returns from its Easter recess.

The committee Wednesday struck a new blow at the administration farm program. It tentatively inserted in the bill higher price supports for four feed grains and non-commercial corn grown outside the main corn belt.

But supporters of the bill said the administration seems to be softening toward the bill despite its many administration-opposed features — especially rigid price supports.

President Eisenhower indicated Wednesday he will be guided by the overall possible effect of the bill. Previously, Republicans predicted he would veto it.

Other congressional news:
TROOPS: Republicans and Democrats applauded President Eisenhower's renewed assurance he would never order American troops into action in the troubled Middle East or elsewhere without congressional approval.

Some law makers said they never had any fear the Chief Executive would take such action without approval from Congress.

BRICKER AMENDMENT: A majority of the Senate Judiciary Committee said a proposed new version of the Bricker Amendment would guard against treaty-making power abuses without hamstringing the President.

However, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said in a minority report the proposed constitutional amendment has "camouflaged dangers."

UN - AMERICAN: Chairman Francis Walter (D-Pa.) said his House Committee on Un-American Activities will take "full advantage" of the Supreme Court decision that the government can force any witness to testify by promising immunity from prosecution.

Walter said the committee is checking the many witnesses who invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked about Communist activities to decide who "should be recalled and offered immunity."

Tornadic Storm Moves to Sea Leaving 43 Dead

By UNITED PRESS
The remnants of a vast killer storm moved out into the Atlantic Ocean today, leaving a heartbreaking job of reconstruction behind.

The final death count in the two-day barrage of tornadoes and storms stood at 43. Hospitals were jammed with many of the estimated 500 injured. Hundreds of families, their homes wrecked, searched for new dwelling places.

In Washington, U. S. Weather Bureau officials said the 12-state tornado rampage may go down as one of the worst in the nation's history. Other tornado barages have killed more persons. But few have ever moved so fast and covered such a wide area.

The storms came raging out of the Southwest Monday and hit their climax Tuesday night when they killed 17 persons in western Michigan.

The vicious weather front kept going east, but lost much of its power trying to get over the Appalachian Mountains. Winds got up to 75 miles an hour at Rochester, N. Y., and a tornado funnel was sighted whirling over Vermont. Winds up to 70 miles per hour hit West Virginia, while a dense fog delayed shipping in New York City and made driving hazardous through eastern and central Massachusetts.

The fog lifted in New York shortly before midnight, however, and winds died. Forecasters said the East should have clear, sunny weather today.

The warm weather posed a new weather threat for the East. The Albany, N. Y., Weather Bureau issued special flood warnings for New York state communities. Melting snow already sent small streams over their banks, closing some roads and flooding hundreds of cellars, and the Weather Bureau said the situation would probably become more serious as the snow continues to melt.

Floods also plagued parts of Wisconsin and Indiana.

UN Aide Flies Friday to Seek Mideast Peace

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld flies to the Middle East Friday to find ways and means of ending the mounting threat of war between Israel and the Arab nations.

He called a news conference for today to outline plans for the peace mission, the most important attempted by the Swedish diplomat. The mission was authorized late Wednesday by a unanimous vote of the Security Council.

The resolution sending Hammarskjöld to the Mideast was sponsored by the United States which asked early and urgent action on means of reducing the tension. A series of new incidents increased that tension near the breaking point.

1. Egyptian and Israeli artillery blazed across the border near Kissufim for four hours Wednesday in a battle that killed three Israelis and one Arab Palestinian refugee. Each side blamed the other for starting it.

2. The Israeli-Jordan Mixed Armistice Commission meeting in Jerusalem accused Jordan of sending infiltrators into Israel to interfere with communication lines. It found the Jordanians guilty of ambushing Israeli vehicles last week in a "breach of the armistice agreement."

3. Saudi Arabia announced in Djeddah it was buying jet military aircraft from Egypt and that the first of "several" squadrons was delivered last month. King Saud moved to line up tiny, remote Yemen with the Cairo-Damascus-Djeddah axis and against Britain.

4. The London Daily Telegraph reported that Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser has called for Arab domination of the entire Mediterranean Sea crescent once held by warring Moslems. It said he outlined the plan during last month's Arab "summit conference" in Cairo.

5. Israeli newspapers accused the western powers of evading their responsibility in meeting Israel's request for defensive arms and said this would threaten failure of Hammarskjöld's mission to the Mideast. The newspapers said U.S. refusal to sell arms would encourage Arab aggression.

Motor trucks account for 16 per cent of the total motor vehicle registrations in the nation.

Unity Hope Dim, Two Germans are at Last Getting Separate Armies

Free West Germany and satellite East Germany have really started at last to raise their rival armies. President Theodor Heuss of the West German Republic has signed the constitutional amendments which legalize the building up of a 500,000-man Bundeswehr—federal defense force.

The East German government has formally begun the formation of its "People's Army," which is expected to total about 250,000 men.

West Germany's army will be a part of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces. The East German army will be incorporated in the new Iron Curtain military bloc in which the military forces of Soviet Russia and its satellites are being unified.

West German Defense Minister Theodor Blank has promised firmly that the Bonn Republic will have 96,000 men under arms by December 31. The target date for the full 500,000-man army is December 31, 1958.

The East Germans got off to a head start. All they had to do, in the first stage, was to start calling their highly militarized "barracks people's police" force of about 120,000 men an army.

It is beginning to look as if the two German armies may be built up completely before any serious attempt is made to unify the country.

Russian leaders are talking more and more about keeping Germany divided. The latest pronouncement came Tuesday from Communist party leader Nikita S. Khrushchev. He said at a reception in Moscow that it was possible to have a European peace agreement without unifying Germany first.

Russian leaders do not want Germany unified except on their own terms. No. 1 term is that Germany shall be disarmed and neutralized. No. 2 is that any unified German government shall be a weak one, in which the Communists play a big if not dominant part.

90-Day Sentence for Auto Theft
Alvin Gibson, 32, an ex-dishwasher at a Cathedral City restaurant, yesterday was sentenced to 90 days in jail after he pleaded guilty to a charge that he took a car without the owner's permission. Seventy-five days of the term was suspended by Judge Eugene Theriault.

Gibson was arrested Tuesday in Banning, in the car owned by Wilson Frankhouser, a bartender at the same restaurant.

Suicide Shoots Nail Into Heart

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP)—A maintenance worker committed suicide yesterday by driving a steel nail through his heart with a power hammer.

Country police said Hubert Edgar Miller, 40, was found on his bed by his wife.

Police said the two-inch nail passed through a piece of plywood lying on Miller's chest, through his heart and through the mattress.

The power hammer, used to drive steel nails in concrete or metal, is powered by a .22 caliber blank cartridge. The tool was found near Miller's body.

Stolen Rental Car Recovered

A rented car, stolen Saturday night in Palm Springs, was discovered abandoned and out of gas yesterday near Blythe, and was stored by officers there pending pickup by the owners.

The theft was reported to police here Saturday evening by the renter, Arthur Pancoe, Chicago salesman. He had left it parked for three hours near Indian Avenue and Tachevah Road.

The car was registered to the Hertz U-Drive, Beverly Hills.

Red Organizer and Writer is Nabbed by FBI

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI announced that its agents today arrested John Cyril Hellman, a leading Montana and Idaho Communist, on charges of violating the Smith act.

It said Hellman, active in Communist party affairs for approximately a decade, was taken into custody without incident at his home in Butte, Mont.

A federal warrant issued in Great Falls, Mont., yesterday charged Hellman with violation of the membership section of the Smith act. This section makes it illegal to be a member of the Communist party with the knowledge that it aims at the overthrow of the U.S. government by force and violence.

Maximum penalties are $10,000

Thief Takes Only One Seat Cover

Police today are attempting to trace the thief who stole a front seat cover from a car parked beside the owner's home, and may have dropped a green pencil while committing the theft.

The victim, L. W. Raleigh, of 433 East Arenas, told officers he discovered the $5.50 accessory missing when he left his house at 7 a.m. yesterday.

fine, 10 years imprisonment, or both.

Hellman was described as a Communist party organizer in Montana and Idaho, who has written articles and given speeches in support of the Communist cause.

Two Visiting Boys Lose $175 Clothing

Two Anaheim boys visiting this week while their school is out, told police yesterday their car was entered and $175 worth of clothing taken.

The boys, Mickey Cook and Robert Dougal, said they had parked their car at Tahquitz Road and Palm Canyon Drive last night, and they returned to find that a plastic traveling cover full of the clothes was missing.
